OCmamma.com - January 6, 2008

Fresh, Organic, Home-Cooked Meals for your baby and toddler DELIVERED to your door! I know, it is so OC and so totally amazing. Pomme Bebe prides themselves in offering great tasting and healthy baby food:

- o NO preservatives
- o NO fillers
- o NO artificial flavors or sweeteners
- o NO chemicals
- o NO hormones or antibiotics
- o NO high-heat processes that destroy vital nutrients, taste, and color

Pomme Bebe is located in Newport Beach, and features a contemporary setting with a tasting bar and baby “lounge”. If you can- you MUST go see it- it is worth the visit (I tried the food and let me tell you – DELICIOUS). If you cannot visit, their online store is fab (and who wouldn’t want their food delivered?).

And one of the best things about supporting this OC Business- Pomme Bebe is owned by an OC Mamma herself!
